
Social Enterprise in Secondary Schools Programme

Privacy Notice and Consent Form

The British Council will collect and store all the image, information and personal data contained within the programme entries, including Schools names and email addresses as described in sections 2 and 5 of the accompanying Terms and Conditions for this Competition as well as the additional contact details of the winning Applicant. The British Council will use this personal data for the following purposes:

- Managing the relationship between the Schools and the British Council;
- Communicating with Schools to answer their queries about the Programme;
- Communicating with the participating Schools and arranging the programme activities/events; and
- Marketing and publicity in accordance with the text below.

The British Council intends to publish the participating Schools name and image, as well as details of their Social Enterprise Activities on the British Council's websites, Facebook pages, Twitter pages, press releases and in other promotional and marketing material. In addition, the British Council may write and publish articles about the participating Schools progress throughout the programme. By providing consent, each School agrees to the use of their name, personal image/likeness and all programme related materials and agrees to co-operate with any such publicity or marketing relating to the Social Enterprise in Secondary Schools programme in line with the Terms and Conditions of this Programme.

All Schools grant the British Council, free of charge, permission, to use the Schools material including personal data and the image (including, without limitation, modifying and adapting it for operational and editorial reasons) in countries where the programme has been delivered and any media worldwide relating to the Social Enterprise in Secondary Schools programme.

The British Council will hold the image, information and personal data from the programme participants for the life cycle of this Social Enterprise in Secondary Schools programme. After which, we will routinely review the use and retention of this information on annual basis in line with the aims and objectives of the Social Enterprise in Secondary Schools programme.

The British Council complies with data protection law in the UK and laws in other countries that meet internationally accepted standards. Applicants have the right to ask for a copy of the information we hold on them, and the right to ask us to correct any inaccuracies in that information. If Schools have concerns about how we have used their personal information, they have the right to complain to a privacy regulator.

Social Enterprise in Secondary Schools Programme

Schools have the right to withdraw consent at any time and the British Council will stop any future publication of that material. For material that has already been published, the British Council will, within what is reasonably possible, take down this material and no longer publish the material in the future.

For detailed information, please refer to the privacy section of our website, www.britishcouncil.org/privacy or contact your local British Council office.

By ticking this box, the School confirms they have read the above provisions and is providing their consent for the use of their personal data in line with those provisions

Name:

Date: